

Mary Ward Week (23-30 January) and Teresa Ball Celebrations

In Mary Ward Week this year, we continue to celebrate Teresa Ball who began the Irish branch of Mary Ward's Institute and named it Loreto. The following activities are available with resources on the Teresa Ball Padlet. These resources will be updated later this week. Reflections on Mary Ward and Teresa Ball will be posted on Twitter each morning during this week. Due to the challenges of the pandemic, the lectures will be recorded and sent to each school to view in your own time.

Monday	The Loreto Anthem: She Teresa Ball Bicentenary Image.
Tuesday	Videos: Mary Ward: Dangerous Visionary /The Curious Voice (Teresa Ball) Ember Teams gather online to celebrate Teresa Ball
Wednesday	Primary Schools gather online to celebrate Teresa Ball Podcast – Deirdre Raftery and Ruth Ferris, Teresa Ball and Loreto Education
Thursday	Elaine McDonald, The Legacy of Mary Ward and Teresa Ball
Friday	In the Footsteps of Teresa Ball – Choose one of the routes from the Teresa Ball Pilgrimage Booklet and walk it virtually.
Additional Information and Resources	https://padlet.com/kfitzpatrick35/nmd50i0g7524udy5 Password: TeresaBall2021