

Let Justice and Peace Flow

SEPTEMBER 2023

Jeremiah 29:11

I know the plans
I have for you ...
plans to give you a future full
of hope

A CELTIC MOMENT

The Celtic grace of looking deeply and the Celtic faith of believing fully lives on enduringly within each of us, beseeching our beholding.

*Like the unceasing prayer of Celts, an ancient call to gather the ordinary, savour the sacrament that lies within,
bless whatever life offers to us in the routine, the mindless, the duty, the cherished, the surprising, the serene.*

A CELTIC MOMENT (contd)

Let our open gaze fall faithfully over a stretch of hurried days, see among their swiftly moving pieces a story threaded with touch of Divine.

*Celtic moment, Soul moment, Sacred moment,
in simple task or thin veil of mystery, whatever our day brings we can bless, whatever our lives hold we can reverence.*

A CELTIC MOMENT (contd)

Gather all to our soul:

the silent sparkle of untamed moments, the hurried haze of endless duty,

the silky joy of surprising experience, the shadowed grasp of unwanted pain.

Recover the lost cloak of Celtic rhyme and Celtic rhythm, put on the rich garment

of intentional communion, embrace the commonness of life woven on the endless loom of the Holy.

What a Wonderful World

I see trees of green, red roses too
I see them bloom for me and you
And I think to myself
What a wonderful world
I see skies of blue and clouds of white
The bright blessed days, the dark sacred nights
And I think to myself
What a wonderful world.

the bond is between
concern for nature,
justice for the poor,
commitment to society,
and interior peace.

A prayer for our Earth (Pope Francis)

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures.

You embrace with your tenderness all that exists.

Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty.

Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

O God of the poor,

help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth,

so precious in your eyes.

Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction.

A prayer for our Earth (Pope Francis)

Touch the hearts
of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth.
Teach us to discover the worth of each thing,
to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature
as we journey towards your infinite light.
We thank you for being with us each day.
Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.

29 September: Feast of St. Michael the Archangel

- The Feast of St Michael is on 29 Sept. On this Feast, in some schools (Mary Ward schools, Loreto), a picture or a statue of St. Michael is carried to a sacred space by the youngest pupil in the school. Today, we pray for protection for all.
- This practice stems from a story of an attack in 1695 on the Bar Convent in York founded by Mary Ward. The sisters prayed to the archangel St Michael to protect them. When a vision of St Michael on a white horse appeared over the house, the mob fled in terror. An engraving of St Michael now hangs over the front door of the Bar Convent to commemorate this story.
