St Brigid's Prayer

*You were a woman of peace.
You brought harmony where there was conflict.
You brought light to the darkness.
You brought hope to the downcast.
May the mantle of your peace cover those who are troubled and anxious,
and may peace be firmly rooted in our hearts
and in our world.*

The Story of Brigid

- Brigid was born at a time of major transition in 5th century Ireland. She embodies in herself the pre-Christian Celtic and Christian Celtic spirit. It is generally accepted that St Brigid built her double monastery for men and women in Kildare around 470 AD.
- Some scholars credit Brigid with pioneering monastic life in Ireland. Her monastery was acclaimed as a centre of education, pilgrimage, worship and hospitality until the 16th century when all the monasteries were suppressed.

- About 'An Irish Rhapsody'
The idea for this exhibition came from my research into the two Brigid's of Ireland; goddess and saint. When An Post commissioned me to make art for stamps representing them both I was inspired by their living connections to rural life and the landscape. Ireland is a sacred place. Each print in this show represents an appearance of the divine, whether through the stories of these powerful female forces or the land that gave them to the world.

A few years ago, pupils from Loreto College St Stephen's Green designed stamps to commemorate St Brigid as part of their FÉILE RANGÉELA project with ATU, Galway and the Loyola Academy, Chennai, India.

We Sing a Song to Brigid (Alive-O)

- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yqs7lcZvSA8&t=15s>

We sing a song to Brigid,
Brigid brings the spring
Awakens all the fields and the flowers
And calls the birds to sing.

All were welcome at her door, no one was turned away. She loved the poor, the sick and the sore,
She helped them on their way.

She laid her cloak out on the ground
And watched it grow and grow, In wells and streams and fields of green St. Brigid's blessings flow.

A serene landscape featuring a path that winds through tall, golden grass. The path is flanked by several large, leafy trees. In the background, the sun is setting, creating a warm, golden glow that illuminates the scene. The sky is a soft mix of orange and yellow, and the overall atmosphere is peaceful and contemplative.

Prayer to St. Saint Brigid

You were a woman of peace.

You brought harmony where there was conflict.

You brought light to the darkness.

You brought hope to the downcast.

May the mantle of your peace cover those who are troubled and anxious,
and may peace be firmly rooted in our hearts
and in our world.

Inspire us to act justly and to reverence all
God has made.

Brigid you were a voice for the wounded and the weary.

Strengthen what is weak within us.

Calm us into a quietness that heals and listens.

May we grow each day into greater wholeness in mind, body and spirit.

Amen

St Brigid's Blessing

May Brigid bless the house
wherein you dwell

Bless every fireside every wall and door

Bless every heart that beats beneath its roof

Bless every hand that toils to bring it joy

Bless every foot that walks its portals through

May Brigid bless the house
that shelters you.

Hymn to St Brigid: Dearc Anuas

A naoimh álainn, féach sinn.
Feacamid ár nglún id láthair;
Dearc mar mháthair ar do chlainn.
Cuidigh linn, a mháthair aoibhinn;
Bí a choíche ag éisteacht linn.
A Naoimh Bríd, a chéile Chríosta,
Mar an fhaoileann ar an toinn.

Feast of Saint Blaise

- Today is the Feast of St. Blaise who is the patron saint for sore throats and sick cattle.
- St. Blaise was a bishop and martyr who lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. For a time, Blaise lived in a cave to escape persecution. On his feast the church recalls a miracle cure associated with him and celebrates the blessing of the throats. Blaise is reputed to have saved the life of a boy who was choking on a fish bone. The saint said that anyone who lit a candle in his memory would be free of infection, thus candles are used in the traditional throat blessing. He is listed among the Fourteen Holy Helpers, saints revered as healers. He is the patron saint of throat illnesses, animals, wool combers, and wool trading.

always trusts,

Love is patient, love is kind.

It does not envy, it does not boast,
it is not proud.

It does not dishonour others,
it is not self-seeking,

Love is patient, love is kind.
