TRUTH & SINCERITY

In Mary Ward Week 2025, we will focus on the core values of Truth and Sincerity.

Pilgrims of Hope Walking in Truth

Mary Ward Week 2025

Mary Ward - A Pilgrim of Hope

Think about:

- What is truth?
- What does Jesus say about truth?
- What else does it say in the Bible about truth?
- Why were truth and sincerity important to Mary Ward?

Think about:

- Are truth and sincerity the same?
- Can you think of a poem, story, song, picture, movie, activity (or anything else) that reflects truth/sincerity?
- ... or create your own...?

What inspires me about Mary Ward?

This documentary

produced by Sarah Mac Donald,

tells the story of Mary Ward through re-enactments of seminal moments in her life and historical commentary.

It focuses on two projects where Mary Ward's Sisters are working today over 400 years after she founded her first Institute in 1609, the same year that Ignatius of Loyola was beatified.

In the year 1595 on the feast of the Annunciation, when Mary was in her eleventh year, a great fire broke out at her father's house at Mulwith. She was not alarmed, but remained in the room, saying the rosary with her sisters until their father came to fetch them.

- At the age of 24, Mary gathered a number of companions and formed a religious community.
 - To provide education, visit people in prison and other “needs congruous to our time.”

needs of her time.

The Early Years

- educated young women
- helped persecuted and imprisoned Catholics
- they lived and worked openly on the continent but secretly in England to nurture the faith.

Severe Opposition

Mary was imprisoned in England and later in Munich by the Inquisition.

An attempt to destroy all related documents to erase the memory of Mary's work.

Suppression of the Institute in 1631

- During this time, Mary Ward communicated with her supporters secretly by sending letters written in lemon juice, whose words only appear when the paper was heated. Twenty-three of these fragile lemon-juice letters survive today.

Rome

- Mary Ward spent many years in Rome requesting recognition of the new order
- 1631 the Institute, considered too advanced for its time, was abolished
- Mary Ward was personally accused of heresy.

Final Years

- Returned to Yorkshire in 1642
- Mary Ward died in 1645
- “To love the poor and persevere in the same was all the aim of Mary Ward”

Act not out of fear but solely out of love

For we are called by God to a vocation of love. (Mary Ward).

Work with great tranquility, joy and magnanimity,
for what is not done in one year can be done in another.

JOY

These reflections are also in harmony with the theme of Catholic Schools' Week as we joyfully celebrate Catholic Schools Week 2024: 'Communities of Service'.

Of all the core values of Mary Ward, joy is particularly referenced by Mary Ward as linked to resilience.

At a most difficult time in her life, she said, "Mirth, at this time of trial, is next to grace."

Lead Us On, Mary Ward

(Lyrics)

- Lead us on, Mary Ward, lead us!
Lead us on, Mary Ward, lead us!
- Who is this woman? Where has she come from? What is she saying to us? Eyes fixed ahead, set on her goal Bearing her secret within. How beautiful are the feet of those Who brings the gospel of peace. Step up to the challenge! Step up without fear All will be well, for God is near!

(Lyrics continued)

Lead us on, Mary Ward, lead us! Lead us on, Mary Ward, lead us!
Who is this woman? Where is she going? Why is she travelling so far?
Striding out, spirited and strong Pursuing her dream to its end.

O take my hand and walk with me.

Come and sing my song!

Lead us on, Mary Ward, lead us!

Lead us on, Mary Ward, lead us!

Who is this woman? What is she thinking? What is leading her on?
The strength of her spirit, The love of her Lord This is what keeps her going.

Lead Us On, Mary Ward

How beautiful are the feet of those
Who brings the gospel of peace.

Step up to the challenge!

Step up without fear!

All will be well, for God is near!

Lead us on, Mary Ward, lead us!

Lead us on, Mary Ward, lead us.

Lead Us On, Mary Ward

We are this woman
When we have courage
To stand up for what we believe
Speaking the truth, trusting in
God,
Acting for freedom and justice.
O take my hand and walk with
me.
Come, and sing my song!

How beautiful are the feet of those
Who brings the gospel of peace.
Step up to the challenge!
Step up without fear!
All will be well, for God is near!
Lead us on, Mary Ward, lead
us!
Lead us on, Mary Ward, lead
us!
